CENGAGE

- EMR: available fall 2011
- EMT: Published fall 2009, Fundamentals of Basic Emergency Care, 3e. (We are still working on the instructor materials; they should be available late next month.)
- AEMT: late 2012 or early 2013 pub date.
- Paramedic: fall 2009/spring 2010—Volume I of the three part series published last month, the other two volumes are in various stages of development. Volume II should be out in mid-June. Volume III should be available in the fall. Instructor and student supplements will follow about a month behind the books.

Jones and Bartlett

- Emergency Medical Responder, Fifth Edition, will publish 5/30/10.
- EMT, Tenth Edition, will publish 3/15/10 (followed soon after by publication of an impressive suite of student and instructor ancillaries – including an interactive, integrated eBook/Workbook and online course)
- AEMT will publish in December 2010. (We actually have it in production now but plan to hold publication until the ILCOR guidelines are released. We'd rather not have our customers switch to a new book, only to need a revised new book a month later.)
- Paramedic will publish in early 2011.
